June 11 - How the Other Half Loves

Britain's brilliant comic genius, Sir Alan Ayckbourn serves us a fast-paced and hilariously funny theatrical meal. This classic modern comedy is a portrait of three very different marriages that turns into a spirited game of mixed doubles involving sex, jealousy and ingenious stagecraft. Full of clever, razor-sharp dialogue and impeccable split-second timing and twists, HOW THE OTHER HALF LOVES promises to leave you in stitches.

August 13 - Mary Poppins

One of the most popular stories of all time that has captured hearts in a whole new way: as a practically perfect musical! When their children, Jane and Michael, become increasingly unruly, the Banks parents seek a new nanny to instill discipline. Enter Mary Poppins, a magical and whimsical woman who brings joy, fun, and a bit of mischief into their lives. With the help of her friend Bert, a charming chimney sweep, Mary teaches the children valuable life lessons through delightful adventures.

September 3 - Stag and Doe

Bonnie and Brad are throwing the obligatory Stag and Doe to pay for their upcoming wedding. Their Maid of Honour, Dee, is still getting over being left at the altar seven years ago. Mandy and Rob are getting married today – even if their big white tent just blew away in a storm. And Chef Jay's entire catering staff have been arrested! It's all happening at the same time, in the same community hall kitchen. STAG AND DOE offers an affectionate and hilarious look at this distinctly Canadian prenuptial tradition and the joys of small-town life.

October 22 - 9 to 5

Pushed to the boiling point, three coworkers, Violet, Judy and Doralee, concoct a plan to kidnap and turn the tables on the egotistical, lying, hypocritical bigot they call their boss. Will the girls manage to reform the office – or will events unravel when the CEO pays an unexpected visit? Inspired by the cult film and brought to you by Dolly herself, this hilarious musical is about teaming up, standing up, and taking care of business!
