

Three Pines Inspirational Trail – 2026

3 Days

May 10-12 | September 8-10

Discover the charming villages and beautiful sights of the Eastern Townships that have inspired Canadian Author Louise Penny to write such wonderful novels. This exclusive experience explores the world of Three Pines inspired by Louise Penny and in the footsteps of Inspector Gamache.

Day 1: Magog, PQ

Today we will depart for the province of Quebec enroute to Magog, Quebec where we will enjoy the essential of wellbeing at the Bleu Lavande. Explore and enjoy some free time at the lavender farm, interpretation centre and the boutique. Then we are off to visit Le Cep d'argent Vineyard for a tour and tasting. Later this afternoon our hosts at the Manoir des Sables will welcome us for the next two nights. We will enjoy a group welcome dinner and a leisurely evening at the hotel. (D)

Day 2: Saint-Benoit-du-Lac | North Hadley | Stanstead, PQ | Georgeville, PQ

Enjoy breakfast this morning at the hotel. Today we will meet our local ranconteur for a full day sightseeing tour who will take us on a journey through fabled Three Pines and follow with inspired Louise Penny to write, the Brutal Telling, How the Light Gets In, Dead Cold, The Cruellest Month, Still Life and The Murder Stone. We will enjoy a guided visit of the Abbey Saint-Gilbert-Entre-Les-Loups, inspiration for "A Beautiful Mystery" with a visit to the gift shop with their award-winning cheeses. We will enjoy a lovely lunch at the Manoir Bellechasse, inspiration of "A Murder Stone." Then we are off to Stanstead for a tour of the Haskell Free Library & Opera House, inspiration of "The Black Wolf". Then we will travel to Georgeville, inspiration of "The Cruellest Month," to visit St. Thomas Church and Mr. Beliveau's General Store. Following the tour, you are free to enjoy leisure time and the amenities back at the Manoir. Tonight, join your travelling companions for dinner at Manoir des Sables. (B, D)

Day 3: Knowlton | West Brome | Sutton, QC Ottawa, ON

This morning, enjoy breakfast at the hotel. Then we will meet our local ranconteur in the village of Knowlton, which is in the heart of Three Pines, where we will visit the historical museum and the Brome Lake Bookstore. We will enjoy a delicious lunch at the Auberge West Brome. Then we are off to Sutton to visit Sarah's Boulangerie. We will depart after lunch for Ottawa sharing any memories of the Eastern Townships and the Three Pines Inspiration Trail adventure. (B, L)
